Ohio Weekend Due To Be on Cool, Dry Side

Temperatures Slated Below Normal; Rain Expected Monday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Ohio weatherman says the balance of the Thanksgiving holiday weekend will be comparatively cool and dry.

Thursday night a low pressure area moved into Ohio, causing widespread precipitation. Snow fell in the northern sections while rain was confined to the southern half.

Between the snow and rain area, some light freezing rain was reported.

The low pressure area will move off to the northeast today and rain in the southern half will change to snow flurries. Additional snow accumulation can be expected in the extreme northern portion. Cold and dry weather will prevail Saturday.

Here is the Ohio forecast for the next five days:

Temperatures will average 2 to 6 degrees below normal. Normal high 42 north, 45 south; normal low 28-38. Cold Saturday, moderating Sunday and Monday, turning colder Tuesday or Wednesday. Light precipitation occurring Monday or Tuesday.

Nearly half of the country was covered today by a mass of cold air that ranged in temperatures from the 20s in the Southwest to around zero along the Canadian border.

The arctic air gripped an area from Pennsylvania southwestward through Kentucky, Tennessee to Louisiana and northwestward from Texas to the Canadian border.

Southeast of the cold air, the readings generally were in the 50s. In southern Florida, the mercury hit the 70s.

Where warm air clashed with cold air, precipitation resulted. In southern sections there was rain; in the north there was snow. Some areas in the north had sleet and freezing rain.

A Thanksgiving Day storm dropped up to 14 inches of snow in some sections of the Rocky Mountains. Strong winds drove the storm eastward into the Plains and Great Lakes states.

The Weather Bureau said the snow would move farther eastward today through New England.

Castro Swings Left, Names Anti-U.S. Aide

HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro's revolutionary regime swung farther to the left today with Maj. Ernesto "Che" Guevara, Red-leaning critic of the United States, taking over as head of the Cuban National Bank.

Many businessmen expressed shock at the appointment of the 31-year-old Argentine-born soldier of fortune to a job that puts him in a position to dictate Cuba's foreign trade and possibly to oversee the nationalization of private banks.

The National Bank grants import-export permits, allots foreign exchange to finance imports and collects foreign exchange produced by exports.

Guevara is a staunch advocate of closer economic ties with Europe, especially the Communist bloc, and less dependence on trade with the United States, hitherto the mainstay of the Cuban economy.

As head of the National Bank he succeeds Felipe Pazos, a financial conservative, who becomes ambassador at large for Cuba's economic affairs with Europe.

Just prior to announcement of Guevara's appointment, the Cabinet announced an issue of popular low-price savings bonds which it said would be redeemed in 20 years at four times their purchase price. This was viewed as a government drive to compete with the private banks, and possibly the prelude to taking over those institutions, a step Castro himself advocated at his trial in 1953 after he led an unsuccessful revolt in eastern Cuba.

Fired U.N. Aide Found Dead; Police Rule 'Obvious Suicide'

NEW YORK (AP)—Povl Bang-Jensen, 50, deposed United Nations official who had been missing since Monday, was found dead Thursday in a Queens park. Police called it "an obvious case of suicide."

The body of Bang-Jensen, dismissed from the U.N. in a controversy over releasing the names of Hungarian refugees, was found by a man walking his dog along the bridge path of Alley Pond Park.

A .25-caliber revolver was in his right hand. He died of a bullet wound in the right side of his head. Police said a note in his possession was identified by handwriting experts as that of the Danish national.

The note, addressed to his American-born wife Helen, begged her forgiveness and suggested funeral arrangements.

Authorities said the body had been in the wooded area more than 24 hours. This left about 48 hours of Bang-Jensen's disappearance unaccounted for. He was not seen alive after leaving his home Monday at Lake Success on Long Island—about two miles from where he was found.

Bang-Jensen, former senior political officer at the U.N., was fired from his $17,000-a-year position in July 1958. He created international furor for refusing to divulge the names of 81 Hungarian refugees who had given secret testimony before the U.N. committee on Hungary.

Bang-Jensen said he had promised to keep the names secret to protect the refugees' families from possible communist reprisals. The sealed list of names was burned on the roof of the U.N. building in the presence of officials.

Bang-Jensen first was suspended from his U.N. post, accused of insubordination, and then discharged by U.N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld.

At the U.N. the secretary said there would be "no comment" on the death. However, Hammarskjöld sent a note of condolence to Mrs. Bang-Jensen, who went into seclusion when told of her husband's death.

Before he became highway director, Preston was head of E. S. Preston Associates, Ltd., a firm under contract with the Puerto Rican government for highway engineering work.

Preston sold his interest in the firm at the time he became highway director to Elmer Barrett, and others, to end his interest in the corporate activities of his business.

But, Preston told DiSalle, he felt a moral obligation to help complete the work called for in the contract because he felt his reputation as an aerial photography engineer had been instrumental in obtaining the original contract.

The conflict of interest question arose recently because the present firm now has a contract with the State of Ohio for engineering work.

Woman Is Burned In Freak Mishap

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP)—A Mansfield woman was critically burned Thursday night in an unusual accident just outside the city limits.

Hospital officials said Mary Schmidt, about 45, was in "very critical" condition with burns received in the accident.

Richland County Sheriff R. B. Bliss said a car driven by Lyman V. Franklin, 37, of Mansfield was on Ohio 13 when it skidded into a barricade.

Franklin told Bliss that an oil lantern crashed to the ground and started a fire. All four persons in the car got out but the Schmidt woman slipped on the oil and was engulfed in flames.

Home Loan Business Is Slated for Probe

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chairman John J. Sparkman (D-Ala.) said today the Senate Housing subcommittee will look into some practices by money lenders in the home loan business.

Sparkman said some loan firms have been demanding excessive discounts from builders and sellers before agreeing to make loans at the rates permitted on federally insured mortgages.

The maximum rates allowed are 5 1/2 per cent on veterans' home loans and 5 1/4 per cent for those insured by the Federal Housing Administration.

Flying Grandpa Makes Hop of 6,911 Miles

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Flying Grandpa Max Conrad took a well deserved rest in this desert resort today after flying a light plane to a non-stop distance record from North Africa to Texas.

Conrad, 56, landed Thursday at El Paso—6,911 miles from Casablanca, where he coaxed his gas-heavy Piper Comanche into the air more than two days before.

The 56-hour 26-minute flight in the little blue and white monoplane was a record for planes weighing under 3,900 pounds.

Then, after a bottle of pop and a walk to shake out the kinks, Conrad climbed back into his plane and took off again—this time for his home in San Francisco. He landed shortly before sundown at Las Vegas.

Conrad flew the same plane in which he set a 7,668-mile record for heavier aircraft last year from North Africa to Los Angeles. On this flight, he replaced the Comanche's six-cylinder engine with a four-cylinder model and put it in a lighter class.

In El Paso, a lean and thirty Conrad swung his long legs out of the cramped cockpit and told waiting reporters the story of his record-shattering hop.

He took off from Casablanca with 350 gallons of gas, and three thermos of coffee, tea and water, but no food.

During daylight hours, he flew at 100 feet or less and went up to 150 feet at night.

He leaned the throttle back to save gas and flew a about 130 miles an hour most of the way. The weather? Near perfect, as he skimmed across the Atlantic and parts of two continents. He ran into 30-mile an hour headwinds in the Caribbean between Cuba and Haiti, but soon outran the adverse weather.

Expert Says All Religion Is Doomed

CHICAGO, (AP)—A new order of thinking will doom all religions, Sir Julian Huxley of London, internationally famed biologist, has predicted.

Huxley, grandson of Thomas Huxley, noted biologist who defended Charles Darwin against attacks, made the prediction Thursday at convocation exercises at the University of Chicago.

The meeting was in conjunction with ceremonies commemorating the 100th anniversary of the publication of Darwin's "Origin of the Species." Some 2,000 scientists are attending.

Huxley said "there is no longer either need or room for supernatural beings capable of affecting the course of events in the evolutionary pattern of thought."

"The earth was not created," he said, "it evolved. So did all the animals and plants that inhabit it, including our human selves, mind and soul as well as brain and body."

"Evolutionary man can no longer take refuge from his loneliness by creeping for shelter into the arms of a divinized father figure whom he has himself created, nor escape from the responsibility of making decisions by sheltering under the umbrella of divine authority, nor absolve himself from the hard task of meeting his present problems and planning his future by relying on the will of an omniscient, but unfortunately inscrutable, providence."

"A religion of some sort is probably necessary, but it is not necessarily a good thing."

Japan Mob Demands End of U.S. Pacts

TOKYO (AP)—Thousands of chanting, shouting Japanese surged through Tokyo streets today and invaded the grounds of the Parliament building, demanding an end to military ties with the United States.

Police reported 371 persons were injured, 23 seriously. Among the injured were 159 policemen. It was the most violent demonstration since the 1952 May Day riot in which one Japanese was killed and 500 injured.

U.S. Moon Shot Flops; New Stab into Space Planned

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The United States pushed ahead with plans for another stab at space today while still seeking the reason for the failure of its biggest moon rocket.

In about two weeks an attempt will be made to propel a payload toward the vicinity of the planet Venus and into orbit about the sun. The launching vehicle will be a Thor-Able rocket.

The nation's latest space effort ended in disappointment Thanksgiving Day when a mammoth Atlas-Able rocket fizzled shortly after it was fired in an attempt to put the first satellite into orbit around the moon.

The Atlas-Able, 10 stories high and the most powerful rocket ever assembled by this country, was on its maiden flight. It crashed hundreds of miles out in the Atlantic Ocean after its second stage failed to ignite.

Scientists are studying telemetry data and launch movies to learn the cause.

Focal point of the investigation was a mysterious piece of material that fell from the rocket about 30 seconds after launch. The chunk, which appeared to be on fire, spiraled slowly into the ocean a few miles off shore.

Officials theorized it was part of a protective fiberglass fairing that covered the third stage and the 372-pound satellite. The fairing was to split in two and blow away when the rocket was outside the earth's dense atmosphere. It is believed the fairing may have broken prematurely, exposing the upper stage and payload to intense friction.

Had it been successful, the American satellite would have transmitted back crude pictures of the moon's surface and other information on its environment.

Representatives of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration conceded that the failure leaves the Soviet Union with a wide lead in the space race.

Dr. John Lindsay, chief of NASA's solar physics program, said that unless the space agency can find extra money somewhere, it probably will not try another moon shot for several months. He said a duplicate payload is available but no Atlas-Able.

presently available evidence in detail, he said, "The Public Health Service believes that the following statements are justified by studies to date:

"1. The weight of evidence at present implicates smoking as the principal etiological (causative) factor in the increased incidence of lung cancer.

"2. Cigarette smoking particularly is associated with an increased chance of developing lung cancer.

"3. Stopping cigarette smoking even after long exposure is beneficial.

"4. No method of treating tobacco or filtering the smoke has been demonstrated to be effective in materially reducing or eliminating the hazard of lung cancer.

"5. The nonsmoker has a lower incidence of lung cancer than the smoker in all controlled studies, whether analyzed in terms of rural areas, urban regions, industrial occupations, or sex.

"6. Persons who have never smoked at all (cigarettes, cigars, or pipe) have the best chance of escaping lung cancer.

"7. Unless the use of tobacco can be made safe, the individual person's risk of lung cancer can best be reduced by the elimination of smoking."

Burney said recent scientific studies also point to air pollution—from car exhausts, industrial smog and so on—as additional causative factors in rising lung cancer.

Hollywood's Forgotten Man Spends Thanksgiving Alone

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Hollywood's forgotten man sat on the bare floor of his big, empty mansion. Jay Robinson was alone with the posters of his past.

Not long ago filmland called him a genius.

He made $3,000 a week then. Friends and rich furnishings filled the house. There was laughter and music.

His life may well have rivalled that of the Emperor Caligula, whom he played in "The Robe." He was also a featured actor in "Demetrius."

But on Thanksgiving Day, at 29, he was left with memories.

Last June he was convicted of sale and possession of narcotics.

Two Inured In Collision

A driver and a passenger were injured in a two-car crash on the Florence-Chapel Pike three miles west of here at 9:45 p. m. yesterday.

One of the cars was operated by Arthur Wynkoop, 29, Stoughton. He suffered a lip laceration.

Marie Wynkoop 39, received a deep laceration on the forehead. Both the injured were treated at Berger Hospital.

The other auto was driven by Thomas Tilton, 21, Route 3, Circleville. He was not injured.

Hoover said both cars were extensively damaged.

U.S. Divorcee Denies Affair With Tycoon

NICE, France (AP)—Jeanne Schley Rhinelander, a 34-year-old American society divorcee, Thursday denied misconduct with Aristotle Onassis but indicated she thinks she may be the mysterious "Mrs. J.R." named by the wife of the Greek shipping magnate in her divorce suit.

"I am surprised that my name was proclaimed the subject of a scandal of which I had no part," the statuesque blonde told newsmen at her villa in nearby Grasse.

Onassis' beautiful 29-year-old wife—daughter of another wealthy Greek shipping man—filed suit for divorce in New York Wednesday. She named as co-respondent an otherwise unidentified "Mrs. J.R." and made no mention of Maria Meneghini Callas, the famous opera star with whom Onassis has been linked lately.

Although "Mrs. J.R." was not identified in the divorce petition, the coincidence of the initials and the fact that Mrs. Rhinelander had been a guest on the Onassis yacht sent newsmen rushing to her.

Mrs. Rhinelander is the daughter of the late Grant Barney Schley, an American who died on the Riviera in 1936, and Mrs. John Frederic Byers of New York.

French-born widow of the chairman of the board of A.M. Byers & Co. of Pittsburgh, one of the world's largest producers of wrought iron.

Mrs. Rhinelander was granted a Virgin Islands divorce in 1952 from T.J. Oakley Rhinelander, scion of an old New York family, and was given custody of their two small children.

He is about to lose the house, he said. He is three months behind on the payments. Robinson said he didn't know whether his father, a wealthy shirt manufacturer, will come to the rescue.

In the closet were a few scripts, several photographs, some reviews and posters.

India House Gives Backing To Nehru

NEW DELHI (AP)—The Indian Parliament's lower house overwhelmingly endorsed Prime Minister Nehru's handling of the border crisis with Communist China today after India's veteran leader told it to either support him or replace him.

Only one or two "nos" were heard in the thunderous voice vote which approved Nehru's policies.

The Prime Minister declared his policy of seeking a settlement by mediation is not appeasement and bluntly told Parliament he was ready to resign if it wanted another leader.

The packed house rang with cheers as he asserted: "But if, in balance, this house feels this government, this Prime Minister has got to face the challenge, then help him, and stand by him."

Earlier in the debate Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon rejected opposition demands that he resign and Nehru took the floor to support his Cabinet officer.

Menon, who has been accused of too close friendship with the Peiping regime and with treating the border trouble too lightly, declared all necessary troops movements consistent with India's resources have been made to defend the country's border with Red China.

The vote for Nehru ended a three-day debate on the border dispute during which some opposition members demanded military measures to drive back the Chinese occupying territory India claims along the northern frontier.

VFW Edges Orient; River Oil, Hunsicker's Grab Victories

Veterans of Foreign Wars protected their first place standing in the Circleville Independent cage league by besting Orient Farmers Exchange, 67-64, last night at the Coliseum.

WilliamSPORT, now sponsored by Hunsicker's Elevator, edged Barr's All-Stars in a closely contested 59-56 match. River Oil held on to second place in the loop by trimming Amanda, 72-66.

VFW was forced to wage an uphill struggle in order to take Orient in hand. The Exchange outdid 21-11 as the first quarter ended 35-28 at halftime.

The VFW crew put on a show of strength in the third period to score 22 points while holding Orient to seven. This told the difference as OFE came back to outscore the winners, 22-17, in the final quarter.

VFW HAD three men scoring 13 points or better, with Jack Young's 14 being tops. Max Spangler, Dick Hoover and Jim McConnell tallied 13 each. For the losers, it was Neff smacking the hoop for 24 markers and Stuart added 21.

R. James of Hunsicker's led his mates with 14 points. Miller hit for 12 and Metzger 10. Lyle led Barr's with 17 tallies, assisted by B. Barr's 15 and Reinscheld's 13.

Hunsicker's trailing 30-24, at halftime, exploded for 21 points in the third quarter to take a lead which remained until the final gun.

River Oil grabbed a 24-9 lead in the first quarter which was good enough for the remainder of the game. The Oilmen's only defeat to date was administered last week by VFW.

Brown led the way for RO with 21 points. Bryant collected 19 and Williamson added 12.

D. Hinton was top man for Amanda with 16 points. He had able assistance from Seesholtz with 13, Johns with 12 and Bob Goodman with 11.

Three more games are on tap Thursday at the Coliseum. VFW takes on Hunsicker's, River Oil meets Barr's All-Stars and Orient tangles with Amanda.

Probers Slated To Set Date Dec. 9 for Payola Hearings

WASHINGTON (AP) — No disc jockeys have yet been called to testify in Washington, a House subcommittee source says, because no date has been set for hearings into the payola racket.

Investigators have gone out of town to question several disc jockeys, said the spokesman, "but we haven't asked any to come here."

The subcommittee on Legislative Oversight is expected to set a date for hearings on payola when it meets Dec. 9 on an unrelated matter. The hearings probably will come early next year.

Payola is the practice of bribing some disc jockeys with money or gifts to play certain records and help make them popular.

In New York, the American Guild of Authors and Composers said payola to disc jockeys is "merely a symptom of a disease."

In a letter to Chairman John C. Doerfer of the Federal Communications Commission, Guild President Burton Lane said: "The disease itself is the involvement of the entire broadcasting industry, including the networks and local stations, in a deliberate and successful distortion of music programming for their own financial gains."

Lane noted that Dick Clark, Philadelphia disc jockey, was ordered by his ABC network to divest himself of outside music interests.

Lane called this a "travesty on logic" because "ABC is permitted to own and operate far greater music interests of its own, which include the important recording company, known as Am-Par Record Corp."

Lane added that "RCA has admitted the use of its licensed stations and facilities to promote the products and talent of its recording company." CBS, he said, also has used "its licensed stations facilities to promote the products and talents of its recording company," Columbia Records.

Nuclear Test Stand Cagey

Developments at Geneva strengthen expectations that President Eisenhower will extend America's ban on nuclear tests beyond its expiration December 31.

These tests were suspended a year ago by the United States, Great Britain and the Soviet Union at the beginning of their conference at Geneva, called to seek international agreement on a controlled, supervised halt in nuclear explosions.

Now the delegates of the three powers at Geneva have submitted to their governments a plan to let a working party of experts consider American data on the difficulty of detecting underground nuclear tests.

This difficulty, in the American view, must be considered in framing any plan for policing a formal nuclear test ban. Until now, Russia has refused to consider it.

Washington seems to take the view that if there is hope of even modest progress at Geneva, unilateral resumption by the United States of nuclear tests would not be advisable. The question the Eisenhower administration must consider is how long it can afford to wait before determining whether Russia is really willing to take a first step toward effective controls.

Secretary of State Herter says he would favor an extension if it were a "matter of weeks" and if "we were still talking." He is doubtful about a longer moratorium, but suggests that the length of the extension would have to be determined by developments at Geneva.

This association of cause and effect permits a delicate course, one that is psychologically expedient. It seems to be the only course that is advisable, even though it involves the risk of Russian duplicity.

well as for costly research programs.

Each year the military "cost-of-living" goes progressively higher. Next year's dollar, for example, will buy fewer weapons than this year's.

To make ends meet, the Budget Bureau has been suggesting various Defense Department economies which are as popular with the respective services as economy is elsewhere in government. For one thing, force reductions are anticipated for both the Navy and Air Force.

Ike Suggests Force Cut

President Eisenhower has fixed next year's overall military budget at roughly $41 billion. Though this figure approximates current Defense Department spending, the various services will realize considerably less in dollars and in military "hardware."

For the first time, the Defense Department's 1960-61 budget will have to absorb the cost of direct foreign military aid. Under the Mutual Security Program, this is estimated at about $1.3 billion, which means that much less for the services as

Rod Lauren's Career Eyed

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Has rock 'n' roll music passed its peak?

Can cash build a 19-year-old unknown singer into an explosive stardom eclipsing even that of Elvis Presley, still a top idol of the teen-age set?

The career of Rod Lauren may hold an answer.

Rod, picked from a field of 300 aspirants, was signed by RCA-Victor to a seven-year contract to springboard a trend among teenagers toward music with "a soft sound."

According to Variety, the show business weekly, the firm is spending $100,000 to try to make a star of Lauren—the largest sum ever budgeted by a recording company on a young unknown.

The theory behind the massive buildup is that many teen-agers, who buy about 90 per cent of single records, are beginning to weary of the raucous monotony of rock 'n' roll after five years.

What is he like, this moody young man from Fresno, Calif., who was tapped for stardom before he even made his first real record?

Well, he has a ballad-type voice, hazel brown eyes, dark tousled hair, and the same look of suppressed, sleepy-eyed excitement that stirred girlish hearts to thunder over the late James Dean.

"I enjoy rock 'n' roll music myself, but I don't sing it well," said Rod, who is launched on a nationwide 20-city tour.

His mother plays the piano and his father sings in church choirs. He plays both the piano and trombone. He started out to be a dentist.

Rod is a mixture of Spanish, German, French and Irish. He is 5 feet 11, weighs 165 pounds.

He is modest about his prospects. "I realize what a great opportunity this is. So many people struggle and struggle all their lives for this chance—and here it is laid at my feet," he said.

Who Did the Cheating?

By George Sokolsky

It is always fascinating to get the other fellow's point of view and I got it plentifully in the case of Charles Van Doren. Letters poured in. The gist of the letters is that I had written absolving Van Doren of all sins, misdemeanors, felonies, etc., and that therefore I, too, am wicked.

Occasionally, one recalled that I had written that the punishment should fit the crime and that the punishment should include all who are guilty of a vile hoax.

Most who wrote disagreed with me. But the reasons for disagreeing were varied. They ran in two schools:

1. That Van Doren is guilty of perjury.

2. That as he is more educated than the managers of his network, the heads of the sponsoring companies, the advertising agencies, etc., etc., he is more guilty than the others.

Regarding Point One, neighbor my readers nor I know anything about the alleged perjury. A Grand Jury handed down a presentment. The foreman of the Grand Jury was a distinguished gentleman, Louis Hacker, who had been Dean of the School of General Studies at Columbia University. Judge Mitchell D. Schweitzer took the unusual and not understandable step of suppressing the presentment so that it was not made public and to this day, exactly what was said is a well-kept secret. That presentment should be made public or Judge Schweitzer should give a satisfactory explanation for its suppression.

There was no indication of any kind. The District Attorney of New York County, Frank S. Hogan, has served in that office 17 years and has never been accused of malfeasance. He has not prosecuted Charles Van Doren for perjury. It is therefore incorrect to accuse Charles Van Doren of perjury because the misdemeanor has not been established in a court of law before a jury of his peers.

Perjury is the "wilful and corrupt taking of a false oath with regard to a material matter in a judicial proceeding." In some states, all false swearing is perjury. However, under our system of jurisprudence no man is guilty of an offense unless and until he is proved to be so by due process of the law. Even a confession does not make a person guilty, for he may confess to an offense to hide the guilt of another or he may be psychotic and glory in the publicity about his own evil nature.

Point Two, now there can no longer be any question but that there has been considerable and nasty cheating on the television quiz programs. That has been established beyond doubt.

But who did the cheating? Who is really responsible? Who benefited most by the cheating? The questions have not been answered and probably will never be, because it is always someone down the line who is hired to take the blame. He is like a Sitz-Reaktor in a revolutionary country—an editor who is to go to jail when somebody must be arrested for publishing an article which the government in power does not like. Usually such a "sit-editor," to translate the term, is not an editor at all. When he is not in jail, he does nothing.

Too many men now proclaim their innocence of a hoax that was general in the business. It is impossible, unbelievable, not acceptable that they did not know what was happening in properties worth millions of dollars. It is unbelievable that men occupying such exalted positions, who must know their way around, did not know what other men were doing with their money and their property to say nothing of their sacred honor.

Therefore, I wrote and still maintain that public opinion has been too rough on Charles Van Doren and too lenient on all the other persons involved in this hoax.

Crooked is crooked and foul is foul. But the giver is as bad as the taker; the hirer for a murder is as evil as the murderer. Why make distinctions where none exist in the nature of things? Before these investigations are over, television will undoubtedly become lily pure for a while until tricky minds find another gimmick to amuse those who like to watch television when it is interesting and exciting. The public may tire of Westerns and murders and television will have to come up with something, it already having failed at humor. I wonder how many of those who want Charles Van Doren to be stoned, cheat about their income taxes. It would be interesting to know.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

IN AN expensive New York restaurant, a customer blushed when confronted with the check, and told the waiter, "I'm afraid I have just enough money with me to pay my bill. You'll have to go without your tip."

Definitely the waiter redeemed the check from the customer's hands. "Let me add the bill again, sir," he suggested, "and find where I'm in error."

Augustus Hare tells about a rich society woman who awoke in the dead of night with a feeling that she was not alone in the room. A distinct thud on the bed confirmed her suspicion. There was no doubt that someone was prowling to and fro in the room and that hands were moving on the bed. She was so frightened she fainted. When she revived, it was broad daylight, and she found the butler had walked in his sleep and had laid the table for 14 upon her bed!

New Surgery Techniques

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Surgeons are using a new technique to protect patients on the operating table from their own germs.

A surgical patient's skin is scrubbed even more thoroughly before an operation than are the hands and arms of the medical staff. However, perspiration and normal skin activities tend to push bacteria hidden in the pores to the surface of the skin.

Once there, they may contaminate the wound and any staphylococcus — pus-forming bacteria—present might lead to serious infection.

Ordinarily, a staphylococcus infection such as this will probably mean at least a longer convalescence. It might be serious enough to cause the death of infants, the aged and the seriously debilitated patients.

The development of certain strains of staphylococcus resistant to antibiotics has created serious problems in some operating rooms.

Latest step taken by many hospitals to curb the rising rate of staphylococcus infections is the use of a skintight plastic sheet to cover the area of the operation.

The procedure is simple. Following the pre-operative cleaning, a special aerosol-type plastic is sprayed on the area. This becomes tacky within half a minute. Then the sterile plastic sheet is laid on top of it and form-fitted to the body.

Even though the operation may take several hours, the sheet will adhere firmly to the body. The surgeon makes his incision right through the sheet. The thin film seals off the operating wound from any possible bacterial contamination from the patient's own skin.

Doctors report that the smooth, tightly-adhering sheet is especially helpful in operations on the arms, legs, neck and other areas where the conventional towels often prove too bulky.

The sheet can be peeled off as soon as the wound is closed. Some surgeons remove the film around the wound before suturing; others suture the wound directly through the film.

Medicine, you see, is advancing

Anti-DiSalle Law

Actions Dismissed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Presiding Common Pleas Judge George B. Marshall has dismissed four libel suits against Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, two newspapers and a wire service.

The judge dropped the suits at the request of attorney Lloyd E. Moore of Ironton who represented Orville Elias, 57. Elias died Nov. 15.

Elias had sought a $400,000 libel judgment against the governor and The Associated Press plus $300,000 judgments against The Columbus Dispatch and the E. W. Scripps Co. (Columbus Citizen).

Elias brought the suits on the basis of the governor's statements about a court case in Ironton last April. The newspapers were sued for repeating the governor's statements.

Saul Confronted by Christ

THE PERSECUTOR OF CHRISTIANS MEETS
THE RISEN LORD

Scripture—Acts 9:1-9

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
THE SCRIPTURE assignment for today's lesson is brief,
only nine verses, but it is filled with incidents of interest and drama, as Saul (whom we know as Paul) is converted from a persecutor of the Christians to one of the most prominent of the Lord's followers.

"Paul was born in Tarsus, a university city, of Jewish parents who had attained full Roman citizenship. He was sent at an early age to Jerusalem to be trained under Gamaliel," a noted Pharisee, "and there gained a profound knowledge of the Scripture and an intimate acquaintance with the system of the Pharisees which were invaluable to him later in coping
with Judaizing opponents." —
Peloubet's Select Notes.

Like every Jewish youth he learned a trade. He was a tent maker.

"And Saul, yet breathing out

threatenings and slaughter
against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,
and desired of him letters to Damasus, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them
bound unto Jerusalem."—Acts 9:1-2.

"And as he journeyed, he came near Damasus; and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven: And he fell to the earth, and heard
a voice saying unto him, Saul,
Saul, why persecutest thou Me?"

"And he said, Who art Thou,
Lord? And the Lord said, I am
Jesus whom thou persecutest:
It is hard for thee to kick
against the pricks."

"And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, what wilt Thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be

with the 18th century English
statesman, George Lyttelton,
"that the conversion and apostleship of St. Paul alone, duly considered, was of itself a demonstration sufficient to prove Christianity to be a divine revelation." — F. Bruce.

In "A Truth For the Class to Carry Away," the Rev. Dr. Wilbur M. Smith wrote: "All souls
are precious in the sight of God.
Christ died for all men. It has often been true that men who once were strongly and vigorously anti-Christian in their convictions and influence, when converted, became equally strong and vigorous in their proclamation and defense of the faith. This is one reason why the Lord wanted this man Saul for Himself. Ought we not more often and more earnestly to pray for the conversion of some of the more influential enemies
of the Christian faith today?"

HONOLULU (AP) — A former Antioch, Ohio, College faculty member, who was convicted of sailing his yacht into a U.S. testing zone in a protest against nuclear warfare, says he will set up a research project in Japan
on the effects of atomic radiation
on a child's growth.

Earle L. Reynolds, who has appealed his conviction of violating
U.S. Atomic Energy Commission
regulations, announced Monday
that he will leave for Japan in January. He said he will return
here in April and sail his yacht
Phoenix of Hiroshima to Japan
after the winter storms are over.
The anthropologist sailed the Phoenix

School Levy Is Topic of Saltcreek Meet

School can not open at any of the Logan Elm District Schools next fall if the levies being voted on by district voters fail on December 8, members of Saltcreek PTO were told during their monthly meeting Tuesday evening.

Jack Smith, citizens committee chairman, Dr. Wells Wilson, board of education president, and Carl Burger, Logan Elm Superintendent, explained the levies and answered questions.

PTO members were told that the two mill renewal and the new two mills being requested represent more than one third of the district's $320,000 budget for 1960-61.

It was also explained that the new Logan Elm High School could not open without the $46,000 which the 2 1/2 mill equipment levy will produce during the one year it is to run. In response to questions the speakers explained that state funds would not be available to the district in order to keep the schools open if local citizens refused to tax themselves for schools.

It was pointed out, that the district suffered an $8,000 loss of state funds due to changes made by the legislature which adds to the present financial crisis.

During the PTO business session conducted by Carl Anderson, Robert Collins, the finance chairman, presented the recommendations for his committee which were adopted by the group. The projects will include saving sales tax stamps, a light bulb sale and an auction in March.

The program was presented by the first four grades featuring songs and playlets with a Thanksgiving theme. The program was under the direction of the teachers, Mrs. Florence Bochart, Mrs. Urcie Cross, Miss Barbara Valentine and Miss Margaret Chilcote.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Justice, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Moss, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dresbach and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Speaman.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

No Eye for an I.O.U. Affair

DEAR ABBY: I have already started my Christmas shopping and the same old problem has come up again. We have only one child but that's no fault of ours. We'd have welcomed a dozen if the good Lord had sent them to us.

I married into one of those families that makes a fuss over Christmas and three brothers. They have a total of 33 children. (I have only one sister and she has one child so she's not mixed up in this.)

Our problem is this: We spend about $10 on each child's Christmas gift. This adds to $330. In return, each FAMILY gives our child a gift which costs about $10. This means we are getting $70 worth of presents for our $330.

This is not fair. Can you, or any of your readers, figure out some way for us to come out even?

SHORT END

DEAR SHORT: In order to "come out even" you'll have to cut down the cost of your gift to $2.12 per child. Christmas-giving shouldn't be an eye for an I.O.U. AFFAIR.

DEAR ABBY: This has been bothering me for a long time so I decided to write to you and get your opinion of it.

While I was at a friend's house watching the World Series on television, when the band played

"The Star-Spangled Banner," I stood up. Everyone told me to sit down. I felt very foolish because I am a War Bride and was advised that Americans were supposed to stand up when "The Star-Spangled Banner" was played. Please tell me if I was wrong?

WAR BRIDE

DEAR BRIDE: It is not necessary to stand up in the privacy of a home when the national anthem is being played. But having stood, your friends were rude to have told you to sit down.

DEAR ABBY: The girl who signed herself "HATES PIANO" could have been me when I was a kid. Only I am a man. My parents actually struggled to give me piano lessons when I was eight years old. I despised it and threw tantrums and acted like I was doing them a favor to practice an hour a day. I finally got them to let me quit when I was twelve. I am 42 years old now and I will never forgive my parents for not giving me a good swift kick in the pants and making me go on.

"MISSED THE BOAT"

DEAR ABBY: My husband is a great one for hunting. Last year he got a deer and I have had my freezer full of deer meat all winter. My husband is very fond of deer meat but I haven't fixed him any because I am not sure I know how to prepare it. It is all cut up into roast and steaks. I feel so foolish asking my friends. Can you tell me?

HUNTER'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Season and cook deer roast exactly the same way you'd prepare "utility" cuts of beef. Roast venison is best when cooked slowly. Deer steaks are prepared the same as beef steaks.

What's your problem? For a personal reply write to ABBY, care of this paper. Enclosed a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Kitchen Shower Honors Peggy Anderson

Miss Peggy Ann Anderson, 151 Logan St., was honored at a kitchen shower Tuesday given by Mrs. Patty Anderson and Miss Judy Hinton.

The shower was held in the home of Mrs. Orland Inbody, Logan St. Miss Anderson will wed Mr. William E. Bennett, Springfield, Saturday in the Morris EUB Church.

Prize winners were Mrs. Sara Jan Huggins, Mrs. Gladys Hines and Miss Anderson.

Those present were Mrs. Jack Bateman, Mrs. Mary Danner, Mrs. Jesse Bullock, Mrs. Orland Inbody, Miss Mary Ellen Goeller, Miss Linda Miller, Miss Linda Hinton, Miss Barbara Downing, Mrs. Eugene Hinton, Miss Carol Williams, Mrs. Ray Anderson Sr., Mrs. Hines and Mrs. Huffines.

Driver Permit Fix Scandal Hits New York

NEW YORK (AP)—Three state agencies are investigating a drivers' license fix racket. The attorney general's office says almost half the motor vehicle inspectors in the New York Metropolitan area are under inquiry.

The investigation is being conducted by the attorney general's office, the Bureau of Motor Vehicles and the State Police.

An official in the office of Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz said the investigation into a fix ring is in its infancy and may spread to other sections of the state. The official asked that he not be publicly identified.

The ring is reported to involve some auto driving school operators as well as motor vehicle inspectors.

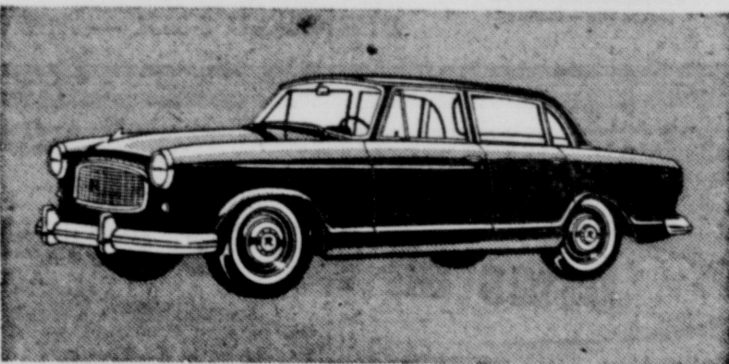

There were indications that the schools involved paid some inspectors and their supervisors to allow the school's clients to pass drivers' tests and to receive licenses.

The schools, it was reported unofficially, usually paid the inspectors $10 an applicant and then paid the supervisors $5 a test. The ring broke when some of the inspectors demanded more money, one source said.

Experts Eye Growing Hazard Of Airports in Home Areas

CHICAGO (AP)—The peril of low-flying aircraft to residents of dwellings near busy airports was being studied today by investigators of a flaming crash of a cargo plane near Midway Airport.

There were 11 fatalities in Tuesday's tragedy. Three were aboard the Trans World Airlines Super-H Constellation that crashed three blocks short of a runway. The other eight victims were asleep in dwellings smashed and set afire by the crippled plane. Thirteen other persons were injured.

An apartment building and three homes were demolished as though a bomb had struck the peaceful neighborhood near the airport handling more than 1,200 takeoffs and landings every day. Much of Chicago's air traffic, including movements of all jet craft, has been diverted in the last few years to O'Hare International Airport on the city's Northwest Side but the problem of low-flying aircraft over residences still remains.

Chicago's official concern was expressed by Alderman John Egan, head of the City Council Aviation Committee. "No matter what the causes of this accident, it points up the ever-present hazard of having big airplanes passing low over heavily built up city communities," Egan said.

"We can't imagine what a proper solution to this difficulty might be."

Midway is a mile-square terminal on the Southwest Side which aviation authorities said enjoys a good safety record in terms of the volume of traffic.

Laid out in the pioneer days of flying when the speed, size and numbers of today's aircraft were in the realm of science fiction, Midway was in a sparsely populated area.

But the city has grown around it. Many of those living nearby derive their livelihood from the port. Two of Tuesday's victims were a newly married couple employed by a helicopter firm.

Automakers Eye Yule Trade

They Want New Cars For Santa's Pack

DETROIT (AP) — Santa Claus will have some 1960 model cars in his pack this Christmas if automakers are able to follow through on production plans announced this week.

General Motors, which hasn't built a car since Nov. 11 and which has assembled less than 12,000 since Nov. 1 will begin returning to production Dec. 7. Full five-day assembly by all divisions is scheduled for Dec. 14.

Chrysler, which will have only three assembly plants running after Thursday, also hopes to be back in full production by mid-December.

Ford has returned to almost normal schedules after slowing down for several weeks. American Motors and Studebaker-Packard continue normally.

Since GM normally builds almost half of the nation's cars, dealers stocks have shrunk sharply during its idleness. Most GM dealers say they will be out of new cars by early December.

Ford reports a continuing shortage of its new compact Falcons. It has announced plans to convert the Metuchen, N.J. Mercury plant to Falcon production as fast as possible starting in mid-December.

Chrysler has halted all production of Imperials, Vallants and Dodge trucks. Vallants are in particularly short supply.

Rambler dealers also report shortages of certain models. American Motors says this is due to increasing business and production problems rather than a steel shortage.

Ohio Air Service Hearing Booked

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — If some Ohio cities are not satisfied with airline service recommended in a preliminary decision of the Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB), the state may help them take counter-arguments to the federal government, Commerce Director John W. Bush said today.

He has called a meeting here Monday (1 p.m.) of the Ohio cities which were parties to the Great Lakes local service investigation case two years ago. Included are Akron, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton, Findlay, Lima, Mansfield, Marion, New Philadelphia, Portsmouth, Sandusky, Toledo, Youngstown and Zanesville.

The Cathedral of the Assumption in Baltimore is the oldest Roman Catholic cathedral in the United States.

Strip Teaser Lectures; Boys Can't Remember Her Topic

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP)—No one could recall much of what she said, but the brothers of Sigma Chi Fraternity agreed today they never heard a more effective speaker than Libby Jones.

Miss Jones, a strip teaser who stands six thought-provoking feet tall in her spike heels, addressed the fraternity at Bowling Green State university Wednesday in her first speech on a college campus.

The 32 young men present forgot her topic, but their house-mother remembered. It was "The Sociological and Psychological Aspects of Strip Teasing."

Miss Jones discussed the drawbacks of the American Educational system and declared that strip teasing is becoming more acceptable to the public every day.

Members of the fraternity said they cleared Miss Jones' appearance with William Taylor, BGSU dean of men, after several of them had seen Miss Jones perform at a burlesque house in Toledo.

A BGSU spokesman, however, said Dean Taylor had told the fraternity he thought scheduling a speech by a stripper would be in bad taste, but that he did not forbid it. The spokesman said the dean neither cleared nor forbade the speech.

Attesting to her charm was the experience of a Toledo newspaper reporter, William P. Day.

Earlier Wednesday, Day interviewed Miss Jones for a half hour

Houston of OSU Repeats On Captains' All-American

By WALTER L. JOHNS
Central Press Sports Editor

For the 30th straight year, and once again with the aid of the nation's football captains, Central Press Association presents its 1959 All-American football team, an honor squad which includes two repeaters from last year — Billy Cannon, Louisiana, State U. half-back, and Jim Houston, outstanding Ohio State end.

The 1959 Central Press All-American, which includes five players from the Midwest, three from the South, two from the East and one from the Southwest, packs power, size and speed highlighted by the presence of Cannon, a d two Big Ten players, including Houston, who were picked as the "most valuable" players on their squads by votes of teammates.

Additionally, the three-team Central Press squad includes one other player who made the first team CP honor eleven last year and two other Big Ten players who also were voted as the "most valuable" on their squads.

The 1959 Central Press Captains All-American was picked after careful scanning of ballots sent in by the captains of the nation's major college teams. The captains, as in the past were asked to vote for the best players, at their positions, they "have seen in action this season as a teammate or as an opponent."

Players on the second and third teams ran fairly close to first-team choices, as always, and many other outstanding collegiate gridirers also rate honors.

Closest battles for positions, perhaps, were at end, center and

Clarksburg Tops Deers; Myers Gets 37

Although David Myers of Williamsport crashed the nets for 37 points, the Deers dropped a 68-56 test at Clarksburg Wednesday night.

Myers, firing mostly from around the key, shot 29 times and was true on 12 to lead all scorers for the evening. He also connected for 13 of 20 foul shots.

Clarksburg pulled to a 20-13 lead in the first quarter, then fought it close to the wire to hang on in face of Meyer's dangerous shooting.

The winners placed three men in double figures. Bill McDonald did most of the damage with 21 points. Rugged rebounder Jerry Ater swept the boards and managed to hit for 15 tallies.

CLARKSBURG'S third scoring threat was Jerry McDonald who ended with 15 markers.

Williamsport started with a men-to-man defense, switched to a 2-3 for a time, then ended with a full court press in an effort to grab the lead.

Coach Glen Chester's Deers came close to knotting the count several times, only to see the Clarksburg clan stiffen at crucial points.

Clarksburg also took the reserve encounter by stopping the young Deers on a 37-18 decision.

halfback.

Just a word on part of the voting, if we may.

Despite the fact his team had one of their poorest seasons, Houston, the Buckeye end, received votes from virtually all the captains of teams which opposed the Buckeyes this year. Ron Burton, the Northwestern halfback who was plagued by injuries and failed to excel in his last two games, nevertheless received votes from virtually all opponents.

More than 250 college players received votes in the captains' poll with Burton, Cannon, Houston, Lucas and Lanphear drawing the most.

Wisconsin's Big Ten champs landed three players on the three Central Press honor teams, to lead all schools. Syracuse, the national champion, had two representatives.

Atlanta picked up its second win in four starts by handing visiting Monroe a 62-56 loss Wednesday night.

Coach Jim Shaw's Red Raiders capitalized on a big second quarter to tally 20 points and take a 33-30 lead at the half. Monroe led, 14-13, at the first period ended.

Ronnie Morris again was the scoring ace for Atlanta as he racked the nets for 22 points, most of them coming on tips and from the corner and outside.

Tom Oyer gave an able assist with 16 markers, many of them scored from underneath.

STEVE Fullen led the attack for Monroe as he hit from the corner and drove for 21 points. Sidekick Larry Bigam opened up from the pivot and outside to bring home 16 tallies.

Roger Mowery was Monroe's third scoring ace as he connected for 15 points.

Monroe gained some consolation by taking the reserve contest, 24-21.

Laurelville Downs Trojans In 64-62 Tilt; Walters Hot

Laurelville and Darby hooked up in a real battle Wednesday night which saw the host Laurelville outfit come through with a narrow 64-62 decision.

It was the fifth win in six starts for the Hocking County aggregation which spoiled Darby's opening test.

Darby, behind the sharpshooting of Tommy Walters, rolled to an 18-15 first quarter lead. Laurelville found the range in the second can to dump in 24 points and take a 39-30 lead at halftime.

Darby outscored its host in the second half, but not by enough points to make up the second quarter deficit. The contest provided plenty of thrills for a jam-packed house.

WALTERS gave Laurelville fits with his amazing accuracy from the field as he fired 18 times and made good on 15 for a blazing 83 per cent average and 31 points. At one point, the hosts used three men in an effort to stop the Derby sharpshooters.

Tommy Liff also carried a burden as he fired for 14 points for Coach Ned Reichelderfer's Trojans.

Max Young reaped scoring honors for Laurelville as he made good on eight field goals and five charity tosses for 21 points. Larry Keck added 17 tallies and Jim Unger found the mark for 10.

Darby shot a commendable 43 per cent for the evening, but this did not offset the even scoring balance of the Wildcats.

Walters and Liff both collected most of their points from outside. Young was hot from the corners and Keck specialized on drives. Unger starred around the pivot.

Darby will attempt to get on the win trail Saturday when the Tro-

Industrial League team which spoiled the Soviet's debut in the United States Thursday night with a 70-50 victory at Madison Square Garden.

Plenty of Heroics, Humor Dot High School Grid Year

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Oddities were a dime a dozen on Ohio's scholastic gridirons this fall — along with the long runs, setups and upsets.

Among the hilarious incidents: Marion Harding, fourth-placer in the state, outscored its nine foes by 250 points, and Coach Pete Riesen came up with one explanation of the defensive strength. Said Pete:

"Twice we sent in a lineman with instructions to our defensive team. He stayed in, and no one came out. Result—a real tough defense and one five-yard penalty."

John Santillo's Lowellville team was penalized five yards for off-side in one game, and when John asked the official to point out the offender, the arbiter said "it was your center!"

"How can the center be off-side?" Santillo asked. The official said "his finger was on the far side of the ball when he centered it."

Martins Ferry, with its first unbeaten-undefeated team in two decades, came up with some scruffy ones, too. When the Purple Riders handed St. Clairsville its only loss, Martins Ferry even had a claim on the losers' homecoming queen.

She was Nancy Lucas, born in Martins Ferry, where her dad, Art Lucas, was once a Rider standout. When the Ferry booster club raffled off a football, it was won by Dick Matesic, former Pitt half.

back. And he's the dad of Dick Matesic, the Rider quarterback, on whose birthday the raffle was held.

Even the bands got into the act. The Weirton, W. Va., tooters are headed for the Rose Bowl, and when the team played at Martins Ferry the visitors asked an extra half-time show. Ferry refused, and the Weirton band stayed home, a bit miffed. Then it rained so hard the field became a quagmire, and even the Ferry band couldn't perform.

Over at Toronto, Coach Earl Biederman figures the biggest oddity was that his team had an 8-1 record, losing only to highly-ranked East Liverpool, with a "Seven Dwarf" line which averaged only 152 pounds. Marietta, sixth in the poll, also thought it rather odd the team won nine in a row after compiling records of 1-8, 1-7, 5-4, 1-8 and 6-4 the previous five years.

East Liverpool and Steubenville Central Catholic played a "mud bow!" game under the worst conditions Liverpool's Lou Venditti has seen in a quarter-century, but punters for both teams ignored the slippery and gooey going and turned in top performances.

Not so, on a good field, was Dayton Stivers' experience against Mansfield Madison. Three times the Stivers center failed to get the ball back to punter Bruce Gordon, and nary a kick got away. The fourth time Stivers solved (?) the problem. The center snapped the ball to one side, to quarterback Jim Calondis, who turned to shovel-pass the ball to the kicker. Calondis promptly tossed it over Gordon's head, and Stivers lost more ground than on the previous three combined. Madison won 52-0.

Cleveland St. Ignatius was playing Cleveland West, had plenty of points, and Coach John Wirtz decided to hold the score down. Ignatius had the ball, first down, on West's 15-yard line, but John told Bill Scopol to punt. He did, kicking out on the five for a 10-yard gain. The field announcer told the crowd Bill had just missed a drop kick.

West got the ball back to the 10, fumbled, and Wirtz told Scopol to punt on first down again. This time Bill tried a drop kick, which was blocked.

"When he came out," Wirtz said, "I asked him why he dropped-kicked when he had never tried one before, even in practice. He said he heard the field announcer say he tried a drop kick the first time, and he got to thinking that maybe I wanted him to dropkick and he didn't hear me."

Then, there's the other side—heroic, not humorous. On Oct. 1, a year ago, four Louisville players were driving home from practice when their car was struck by a train. One boy was killed. Two were hospitalized. One of the injured was Gene Conner, with a ruptured spleen and multiple fractures of the pelvis.

Doctors said it was doubtful he'd ever walk again. He not only walked, he ran! Gene scored 23 touchdowns for 138 points this year to lead Stark County in scoring—a county which includes such teams as Massillon's 1959 champions, Alliance's 1953 kings, two-time state title-holder Canton McKinley, and a host of others.

Of his feats, Gene says: "I guess I'm just pretty lucky."

$770,000 Paid For 2 Paintings

LONDON (AP)—Two paintings owned by an American brother and sister were sold for $770,000 today in an auction of impressionists that attracted the world's top art dealers.

New York art dealers bought Cezanne's "Peasant in a Blue Blouse" for $406,000 and Gauguin's "I Await the Letter" for $364,000.

The Cezanne was owned by Mrs. T. G. Kenefick of Buffalo, N. Y., and the Gauguin by her brother, George Goodyer. The paintings were given them years ago by their father, 82-year-old A. Conger Goodyear of Old Westbury, L. I., one of the founders of New York's Museum of Modern Art.

Ex-Georgia Slave Dies Near 116th Birthday

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—An ex-Georgia slave died here Monday, a day before his 116th birthday. Augustus Wesley, who was born a slave on a plantation in Eaton, Ga., succumbed at his home. He was 17 at the time of the Civil War, and lived through the Reconstruction, four more wars and three major depressions.

Doctors said it was doubtful he'd ever walk again. He not only walked, he ran! Gene scored 23 touchdowns for 138 points this year to lead Stark

MONROE

In the First Grade we have had many days of absence the past two weeks due to illness.

Two new students entered the first grade recently. They were Diana and Sarah Perkins. They have been attending Darby School. Charles Kline withdrew to enter school at Columbus. He moved there with his family this week.

During Art Class they have made pilgrims and turkeys for their room.

The Fourth Grade has had a change of faces in their room, but still have the same total enrollment. Randy Asbury and Frank Perkins joined their class. Randy stayed with them one week and moved back to Mt. Sterling. Robert Reed moved to Sinking Springs.

THEY HAVE seven girls and two boys who have been neither absent nor tardy thus far this year. They are Pauline Austin, Katherine Barton, Carol Conley, Carma Liston, Sue Sheets, Linda Sines, Darrell Arnett and Dick Long.

They also have seven girls and boys who made a perfect score on their six weeks spelling test. They are Katherine Barton, Sonya Lindsey, Pamela Miller, Sue Williams, Steven Armentrout, Dick Long and Steven Smith.

They are all looking forward to a busy December since plans are being made for the Christmas program and they are making their mothers a nice gift.

Each year, a girl's workshop has been held on the first day of hunting season. This year the girl's physical education workshop was held November 16, in the Fairground's Coliseum.

For the first time in years, we have watched a sharp increase in enrollment in our schools. Previously the workshop has been held at Walnut Twp. School, however, with this sharp increase in enrollment a larger area was deemed a necessity.

With the support of the Pickaway County school administrators and executives we were able to secure the coliseum. We had 465 girls participating. Miss Virginia Crafts, Ohio State University, escorted 17 members of her Junior Class in teaching methods to help conduct the workshop.

THE VOLLEYBALL tournament was the main activity. Each school made up the number of teams in groups of nine that their enrollment called for.

The teams were further divided into groups of A or B. In the county we had 10 teams participating in the "A" and 41 teams participating in the "B". In addition to the volleyball tournaments, we had social dancing, table tennis and trampoline work.

In the afternoon the workshop sessions on folk dancing and lead-up games took place in addition to the volleyball tournament. Folk dances which were taught were the Danish Schottische, the Crested Hen, and the Mayhem.

Those girls participating in these dances then took them back to their respective schools to teach the girls in their physical education class.

Most of the games were restrict-

Gracie Settles It

SAVANNAH, Ga. (AP)—Hurricane Gracie settled an argument for county officials about whether to take down an ancient oak.

Some folks differed with county commissioners about it, saying the tree did not stand in the way of a paving program and they wanted to save the beautiful oak.

Gracie decided the question, snapping the huge tree near its roots. The oak was chopped up for stove wood.

ed to basketball foul shooting, lay-up shots and bounce passes, as the danger of flying instruments was involved.

Monroe's girls were divided into three teams, one "A" and two "B". The girls did quite well considering a good case of "nervous shakes" enveloped each girl as she stepped forward on the floor.

OUR "B" TEAM won two good games. Williamsport won the "B" tournament and Atlanta won the "A" tournament. Each of these schools was presented with a "roving" trophy.

Officers and members of the Girls Physical Education Teachers, who helped organize and supervise the workshop were: president, Mrs. Patty Ogle, Monroe; secretary, Mrs. Jo Anne Smith, Scioto and Walnut;

Treasurer, Miss Phyllis Tackett, Jackson and publicity, Mrs. Pauline Patrick, Atlanta; Mrs. Don Collins, Ashville; Mrs. Robert Newton, Darby; Mrs. Jean Mills, Pickaway; Mrs. Glenn Chester, Deercreek, and Wayne Evans, Saltcreek.

This group wishes to thank Mrs. Marcella Hildenbrand, Miss Delong, George McDowell and Miss Lydia Delong for helping them with a very successful workshop.

The girls of Monroe certainly enjoyed the day thoroughly and have been putting the information gained to practice in classes.

During the last six weeks Dickie Downs resigned from his office as news reporter in the freshman class. Ruth Seymour was elected to take his place.

Wednesday the class decided to have a skating party. The date was set for April 5, 1960, at the Roller Haven in Washington C. H. They also decided to have a Christmas party on December 23.

Firefighters Name Officers

During the past five weeks the firemen of the Ashville - Harrison Twp. Department have been receiving instruction in fire fighting. The instruction is to improve fire prevention and fire protection in the Ashville - Harrison Twp. area.

According to a report from the instructor Chief J. H. Hampson, the class is making excellent progress.

The men are attending the classes on their own time since the department is a volunteer organization. The training is provided as part of the public service program of Trade and Industrial Vocational Education Service of the State Department of Education, in cooperation with Teays Valley Local Board of Education.

This training program operates in conformance with standards established cooperatively by the Division of State Fire Marshall, the Ohio Inspection Bureau, the Trade and Industrial Vocational Education Service and the organized fire-fighters' associations.

The firemen elected officers for the new year at their Monday night meeting. They are George Myers, president; Richard Bozman, vice president; Andrew Ward, secretary; and Thomas Rife, treasurer.

8 False Alarms Rout Small Town Firemen

LENEXA, Kan. (AP)—The volunteer firemen of Lenexa tumbled from their beds and rushed into the sub-freezing weather eight times Wednesday night on false alarms.

Thursday morning the fire-fighting citizens sped to the fire station seven times before a telephone lineman finally brought peace to Lenexa, a suburb of Kansas City.

Fire Chief Bert Gast explained that a short in a telephone line sounded the whistle atop the fire house every time the station phone was used.

Old Idle Pay Claims Increase

MUSCLE MEN

● Fungus Infection

Q. How is it possible for professional weight-lifters to raise tremendous loads without injuring the back?

A. General muscular development and "know-how" are obviously needed to lift heavy weights. English doctors made a study of weight-lifting and determined that the theoretical maximum lift is something like 500 pounds. This is, in practice, about tops for professionals. Much of the lifted weight is suspended by the spinal column. The rubbery pads (intervertebral discs) which fit between each bone of the spine withstand pressures up to 1000 pounds. So the professional weight-lifter comes nowhere near lifting enough to crush the spine.

Q. I have been told that I have an incurable fungus infection of the fingernails. Isn't there a cure?

A. Infections of this sort are very difficult to clear up because the infecting organism works its way into the hard-to-reach layers of the skin. Medicines applied to the skin often fail to penetrate deep enough to kill the fungus. This situation may change very soon. A new anti-fungal antibiotic has been developed that can be taken by mouth. Excellent results have been obtained in a limited number of patients with skin and nail infections. This will be encouraging news to many people.

Like "Sterling" on silverware, our name on prescribed medicine is a hallmark of quality guaranteeing the product it identifies. Bring your next prescription to us with every assurance you will receive the finest professional service.

Ohio Weekend Due To Be on Cool, Dry Side

Temperatures Slated Below Normal; Rain Expected Monday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Ohio weatherman says the balance of the Thanksgiving holiday weekend will be comparatively cool and dry.

Thursday night a low pressure area moved into Ohio, causing widespread precipitation. Snow fell in the northern sections while rain was confined to the southern half.

Between the snow and rain area, some light freezing rain was reported.

The low pressure area will move off to the northeast today and rain in the southern half will change to snow flurries. Additional snow accumulation can be expected in the extreme northern portion. Cold and dry weather will prevail Saturday.

Here is the Ohio forecast for the next five days:

Temperatures will average 2 to 6 degrees below normal. Normal high 42 north, 45 south; normal low 28-38. Cold Saturday, moderating Sunday and Monday, turning colder Tuesday or Wednesday. Light precipitation occurring Monday or Tuesday, 3.

Nearly half of the country was covered today by a mass of cold air that ranged in temperatures from the 20s in the Southwest to around zero along the Canadian border.

The arctic air gripped an area from Pennsylvania southwestward through Kentucky, Tennessee to Louisiana and northwestward from Texas to the Canadian border.

Southeast of the cold air, the readings generally were in the 50s. In southern Florida, the mercury hit the 70s.

Where warm air clashed with cold air, precipitation resulted. In southern sections there was rain; in the north there was snow. Some areas in the north had sleet and freezing rain.

A Thanksgiving Day storm dropped up to 14 inches of snow in some sections of the Rocky Mountains. Strong winds drove the storm eastward into the Plains and Great Lakes states.

The Weather Bureau said the snow would move farther eastward today through New England.

Castro Swings Left, Names Anti-U.S. Aide

HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro's revolutionary regime swung farther to the left today with Maj. Ernesto "Che" Guevara, Red-leaning critic of the United States, taking over as head of the Cuban National Bank.

Many businessmen expressed shock at the appointment of the 31-year-old Argentine-born soldier of fortune to a job that puts him in a position to dictate Cuba's foreign trade and possibly to oversee the nationalization of private banks.

The National Bank grants import-export permits, allots foreign exchange to finance imports and collects foreign exchange produced by exports.

Guevara is a staunch advocate of closer economic ties with Europe, especially the Communist bloc, and less dependence on trade with the United States, hitherto the mainstay of the Cuban economy.

As head of the National Bank he succeeds Felipe Pazos, a financial conservative, who becomes ambassador at large for Cuba's economic affairs with Europe.

Just prior to announcement of Guevara's appointment, the Cabinet announced an issue of popular low-price savings bonds which it said would be redeemed in 20 years at four times their purchase price. This was viewed as a government drive to compete with the private banks, and possibly the prelude to taking over those institutions, a step Castro himself advocated at his trial in 1953 after he led an unsuccessful revolt in eastern Cuba.

Fired U.N. Aide Found Dead; Police Rule 'Obvious Suicide'

NEW YORK (AP)—Povl Bang-Jensen, 50, deposed United Nations official who had been missing since Monday, was found dead Thursday in a Queens park. Police called it "an obvious case of suicide."

The body of Bang-Jensen, dismissed from the U.N. in a controversy over releasing the names of Hungarian refugees, was found by a man walking his dog along the bridge path of Alley Pond Park.

A .25-caliber revolver was in his right hand. He died of a bullet wound in the right side of his head. Police said a note in his possession was identified by handwriting experts as that of the Danish national.

The note, addressed to his American-born wife Helen, begged her forgiveness and suggested funeral arrangements.

Authorities said the body had been in the wooded area more than 24 hours. This left about 48 hours of Bang-Jensen's disappearance unaccounted for. He was not seen alive after leaving his home Monday at Lake Success on Long Island—about two miles from where he was found.

Bang-Jensen, former senior political officer at the U.N., was fired from his $17,000-a-year position in July 1958. He created international furor for refusing to divulge the names of 81 Hungarian refugees who had given secret testimony before the U.N. committee on Hungary.

Bang-Jensen said he had promised to keep the names secret to protect the refugees' families from possible communist reprisals. The sealed list of names was burned on the roof of the U.N. building in the presence of officials.

Bang-Jensen first was suspended from his U.N. post, accused of insubordination, and then discharged by U.N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld.

At the U.N. the secretary said there would be "no comment" on the death. However, Hammarskjöld sent a note of condolence to Mrs. Bang-Jensen, who went into seclusion when told of her husband's death.

Governor Taking Close Look At Highway Chief's Affairs

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle today began a search for full information on the personal affairs of Highway Director Everett S. Preston in Puerto Rico.

"There are a lot of other things I would rather be doing right now, but because of the published innuendos, I must proceed with the matter even though it will take a lot of digging," DiSalle told newsmen.

"Both newspapers and public officials have a responsibility when the character of an individual is involved," the governor commented.

"I recognize that responsibility—and when I make a decision in this matter, I am going to be sure, not pretty sure."

The governor told newsmen he would refuse to answer any "if-ty" questions about whether Preston would be replaced, and added:

"I have yet to see any evidence of wrong doing on his part."

The search for information will center around consulting engineering work Preston has been doing on his own time for the Puerto Rican Public Works Department. It involves a conflict of interest question.

Before he became highway director, Preston was head of E. S. Preston Associates, Ltd., a firm under contract with the Puerto Rican government for highway engineering work.

Preston sold his interest in the firm at the time he became highway director to Elmer Barrett, and others, to end his interest in the corporate activities of his business.

But, Preston told DiSalle, he felt a moral obligation to help complete the work called for in the contract because he felt his reputation as an aerial photography engineer had been instrumental in obtaining the original contract.

The conflict of interest question arose recently because the present firm now has a contract with the State of Ohio for engineering work.

No Emergency; But Siren Wails

A brief flurry of excitement was touched off here this morning when the city's air raid siren accidentally sounded.

The wailing siren, located on top of the Pickaway Grain Co. elevator at 8:30 a. m. when a grain company employee touched the control box while sweeping.

Deputy Sheriff Dwight Radcliff said the siren normally is set off by button control at the sheriff's office.

Deputy Radcliff and city police said they received a flood of phone calls concerning the impromptu sounding of the siren.

Bernard Tait, local Civil Defense director, previously has warned citizens to seek shelter immediately when the siren sounded unexpectedly. The phone calls to lawmen indicated that many local persons were more inquisitive than scared.

Home Loan Business Is Slated for Probe

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chairman John J. Sparkman (D-Ala.) said today the Senate Housing subcommittee will look into some practices by money lenders in the home loan business.

Sparkman said some loan firms have been demanding excessive discounts from builders and sellers before agreeing to make loans at the rates permitted on federally insured mortgages.

The maximum rates allowed are 5 1/2 per cent on veterans' home loans and 5 1/2 per cent for those insured by the Federal Housing Administration.

VFW Edges Orient; River Oil, Hunsicker's Grab Victories

Veterans of Foreign Wars protected their first place standing in the Circleville Independent cage league by besting Orient Farmers Exchange, 67-64, last night at the Coliseum.

Williamsport, now sponsored by Hunsicker's Elevator, edged Barr's All-Stars in a closely contested 59-56 match. River Oil held on to second place in the loop by trimming Amanda, 72-66.

VFW was forced to wage an uphill struggle in order to take Orient in hand. The Exchange outlived 21-11 as the first quarter ended 35-28 at halftime.

The VFW crew put on a show of strength in the third period to score 22 points while holding Orient to seven. This told the difference as OFE came back to outscore the winners, 22-17, in the final quarter.

VFW HAD three men scoring 13 points or better, with Jack Young's 14 being tops. Max Spangler, Dick Hoover and Jim McConnell tallied 13 each. For the losers, it was Neff smacking the hoop for 24 markers and Stuart added 21.

R. James of Hunsicker's led his mates with 14 points. Miller hit for 12 and Metzger 10. Lyle led Barr's with 17 tallies, assisted by B. Barr's 15 and Reinscheld's 13.

Hunsicker's trailing 30-24, at halftime, exploded for 21 points in the third quarter to take a lead which remained until the final gun.

River Oil grabbed a 24-9 lead in the first quarter which was good enough for the remainder of the game. The Oilmen's only defeat to date was administered last week by VFW.

Brown led the way for RO with 21 points. Bryant collected 19 and Williamson added 12.

D. Hinton was top man for Amanda with 16 points. He had able assistance from Seesholtz with 13, Johns with 12 and Bob Goodman with 11.

Probers Slated To Set Date Dec. 9 for Payola Hearings

WASHINGTON (AP) — No disc jockeys have yet been called to testify in Washington, a House subcommittee source says, because no date has been set for hearings into the payola racket.

Investigators have gone out of town to question several disc jockeys, said the spokesman, "but we haven't asked any to come here."

The subcommittee on Legislative Oversight is expected to set a date for hearings on payola when it meets Dec. 9 on an unrelated matter. The hearings probably will come early next year.

Payola is the practice of bribing some disc jockeys with money or gifts to play certain records and help make them popular.

In New York, the American Guild of Authors and Composers said payola to disc jockeys is "merely a symptom of a disease."

In a letter to Chairman John C. Doerfer of the Federal Communications Commission, Guild President Burton Lane said: "The disease itself is the involvement of the entire broadcasting industry, including the networks and local stations, in a deliberate and successful distortion of music programming for their own financial gains."

Lane noted that Dick Clark, Philadelphia disc jockey, was ordered by his ABC network to divert himself of outside music interests.

Lane called this a "travesty on logic" because "ABC is permitted to own and operate far greater music interests of its own, which include the important recording company, known as Am-Par Records Corp."

Lane added that "RCA has admitted the use of its licensed stations and facilities to promote the products and talent of its recording company." CBS, he said, also has used "its licensed stations facilities to promote the products and talents of its recording company," Columbia Records.

Nuclear Test Stand Cagey

Developments at Geneva strengthen expectations that President Eisenhower will extend America's ban on nuclear tests beyond its expiration December 31.

These tests were suspended a year ago by the United States, Great Britain and the Soviet Union at the beginning of their conference at Geneva, called to seek international agreement on a controlled, supervised halt in nuclear explosions.

Now the delegates of the three powers at Geneva have submitted to their governments a plan to let a working party of experts consider American data on the difficulty of detecting underground nuclear tests.

This difficulty, in the American view, must be considered in framing any plan for policing a formal nuclear test ban. Until now, Russia has refused to consider it.

Washington seems to take the view that if there is hope of even modest progress at Geneva, unilateral resumption by the United States of nuclear tests would not be advisable. The question the Eisenhower administration must consider is how long it can afford to wait before determining whether Russia is really willing to take a first step toward effective controls.

Secretary of State Herter says he would favor an extension if it were a "matter of weeks" and if "we were still talking." He is doubtful about a longer moratorium, but suggests that the length of the extension would have to be determined by developments at Geneva.

This association of cause and effect permits a flexible course, one that is psychologically expedient. It seems to be the only course that is advisable, even though it involves the risk of Russian duplicity.

Ike Suggests Force Cut

President Eisenhower has fixed next year's overall military budget at roughly $41 billion. Though this figure approximates current Defense Department spending, the various services will realize considerably less in dollars and in military "hardware."

For the first time, the Defense Department's 1960-61 budget will have to absorb the cost of direct foreign military aid. Under the Mutual Security Program, this is estimated at about $1.3 billion, which means that much less for the services as well as for costly research programs.

Each year the military "cost-of-living" goes progressively higher. Next year's dollar, for example, will buy fewer weapons than this year's.

To make ends meet, the Budget Bureau has been suggesting various Defense Department economies which are as popular with the respective services as economy is elsewhere in government. For one thing, force reductions are anticipated for both the Navy and Air Force.

Rod Lauren's Career Eyed

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Has rock 'n' roll music passed its peak?

Can cash build a 19-year-old unknown singer into an explosive stardom eclipsing even that of Elvis Presley, still a top idol of the teen-age set?

The career of Rod Lauren may hold an answer.

Rod, picked from a field of 300 aspirants, was signed by RCA-Victor to a seven-year contract to springboard a trend among teenagers toward music with "a soft sound."

According to Variety, the show business weekly, the firm is spending $100,000 to try to make a star of Lauren—the largest sum

ever budgeted by a recording company on a young unknown.

The theory behind the massive buildup is that many teen-agers, who buy about 90 per cent of single records, are beginning to weary of the raucous monotony of rock 'n' roll after five years. What is he like, this moody young man from Fresno, Calif., who was tapped for stardom before he even made his first record?

Well, he has a ballad-type voice, hazel brown eyes, dark tousled hair, and the same look of suppressed, sleepy-eyed excitement that stirred girlish hearts to thunder over the late James Dean.

"I enjoy rock 'n' roll music myself, but I don't sing it well," said Rod, who is launched on a nationwide 20-city tour. His mother plays the piano and his father sings in church choirs. He plays both the piano and trombone. He started out to be a dentist.

Rod is a mixture of Spanish, German, French and Irish. He is 5 feet 11, weighs 165 pounds. He is modest about his prospects.

"I realize what a great opportunity this is. So many people struggle and struggle all their lives for this chance—and here it is laid at my feet," he said.

Who Did the Cheating?

By George Sokolsky

It is always fascinating to get the other fellow's point of view and I got it plentifully in the case of Charles Van Doren. Letters poured in. The gist of the letters is that I had written absolving Van Doren of all sins, misdemeanors, felonies, etc. and that therefore I, too, am wicked. Occasionally, one recalled that I had written that I thought the punishment should fit the crime and that the punishment should include all who are guilty of a vile hoax.

Most who wrote disagreed with me. But the reasons for disagreeing were varied. They ran in two schools:

1. That Van Doren is guilty of perjury.

2. That as he is more educated than the managers of his network, the heads of the sponsoring companies, the advertising agencies, etc., etc., he is more guilty than the others.

Regarding Point One, neighbor my readers nor I know anything about the alleged perjury. A Grand Jury handed down a presentment. The foreman of the Grand Jury was a distinguished gentleman, Louis Hacker, who had been Dean of the School of General Studies at Columbia University. Judge Mitchell D. Schweitzer took the unusual and not understandable step of suppressing the presentment so that it was not made public and to this day, exactly what was said is a well-kept secret. That presentment should be made public or Judge Schweitzer should give a satisfactory explanation for its suppression.

There was no indication of any kind. The District Attorney of New York County, Frank S. Hogan, has served in that office 17 years and has never been accused of malfeasance. He has not prosecuted Charles Van Doren for perjury. It is therefore incorrect to accuse Charles Van Doren of perjury because the misdemeanor has not been established in a court of law before a jury of his peers.

Crooked is crooked and foul is foul. But the giver is as bad as the taker; the hirer for a murder is as evil as the murderer. Why make distinctions where none exist in the nature of things? Before these investigations are over, television will undoubtedly become lily pure for a while until tricky minds find another gimmick to amuse those who like to watch television when it is interesting and exciting. The public may tire of Westerns and murders and television will have to come up with something, it already having failed at humor.
I wonder how many of those who want Charles Van Doren to be stoned, cheat about their income taxes. It would be interesting to know.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

IN AN expensive New York restaurant, a customer blanched when confronted with the check, and told the waiter, "I'm afraid I have just enough money with me to pay my bill. You'll have to go without your tip."

Definitely the waiter redeemed the check from the customer's hands. "Let me add the bill again, sir," he suggested, "and find where I'm in error."

Augustus Hare tells about a rich society woman who awoke in the dead of night with a feeling that she was not alone in the room. A distinct thud on the bed confirmed her suspicion. There was no doubt that someone was prowling to and fro in the room and that hands were moving on the bed. She was so frightened she fainted. When she revived, it was broad daylight, and she found the butler had walked in his sleep and had laid the table for 14 upon her bed!

New Surgery Techniques

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Surgeons are using a new technique to protect patients on the operating table from their own germs.

A surgical patient's skin is scrubbed even more thoroughly before an operation than are the hands and arms of the medical staff. However, perspiration and normal skin activities tend to push bacteria hidden in the pores to the surface of the skin.

Once there, they may contaminate the wound and any staphylococcus — pus-forming bacteria — present might lead to serious infection.

Ordinarily, a staphylococcus infection such as this will probably mean at least a longer convalescence. It might be serious enough to cause the death of infants, the aged and the seriously debilitated patients.

The development of certain strains of staphylococcus resistant to antibiotics has created serious problems in some operating rooms.

Latest step taken by many hospitals to curb the rising rate of staphylococcus infections is the use of a skintight plastic sheet to cover the area of the operation.

The procedure is simple. Following the pre-operative cleaning, a special aerosol-type plastic is sprayed on the area. This becomes tacky within half a minute. Then the sterile plastic sheet is laid on top of it and form-fitted to the body.

Even though the operation may take several hours, the sheet will adhere firmly to the body.

The surgeon makes his incision right through the sheet. The thin film seals off the operating wound from any possible bacterial contamination from the patient's own skin.

Doctors report that the smooth, tightly-adhering sheet is especially helpful in operations on the arms, legs, neck and other areas where the conventional towels often prove too bulky.

The sheet can be peeled off as soon as the wound is closed. Some surgeons remove the film around the wound before suturing; others suture the wound directly through the film.

Medicine, you see, is advancing

Anti-DiSalle Law Actions Dismissed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Presiding Common Pleas Judge George B. Marshall has dismissed four libel suits against Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, two newspapers and a wire service.

The judge dropped the suits at the request of attorney Lloyd E. Moore of Ironton who represented Orville Elias, 57, Elias died Nov. 15.

Elias had sought a $400,000 libel judgment against the governor and The Associated Press plus $300,000 judgments against The Columbus Dispatch and the E. W. Scripps Co. (Columbus Citizen).

Elias brought the suits on the basis of the governor's statements about a court case in Ironton last April. The newspapers were sued for repeating the governor's statements.

Saul Confronted by Christ

THE PERSECUTOR OF CHRISTIANS MEETS
THE RISEN LORD

Scripture—Acts 9:1-9

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
THE SCRIPTURE assignment for today's lesson is brief,
only nine verses, but it is filled
with incidents of interest and
drama, as Saul (whom we know as Paul) is converted from a persecutor of the Christians to
one of the most prominent of
the Lord's followers.

"Paul was born in Tarsus, a university city, of Jewish parents who had attained full Roman citizenship. He was sent
at an early age to Jerusalem to be trained under Gamaliel," a noted Pharisee, "and there gained
a profound knowledge of the Scripture and an intimate acquaintance with the system of
the Pharisees which were invaluable to him later in coping
with Judaizing opponents." —
Pemberton's Select Notes.

Like every Jewish youth he learned a trade. He was a tent
maker.

"And Saul, yet breathing out told thee there what thou must do."

"The men who were with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man." —
Acts 9:7-8.

"And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man." He was blind. "But they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus. And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink." —
Acts 9:8-9.

"Paul himself gave one consistent account: in that illuminating flash he saw the glorified Christ and in the voice that followed he heard Him speak. As truly as Jesus the crucified, risen from the dead, had appeared alive after His passion to Peter and James and the rest during the days that followed the first Christian Easter so truly now, He had appeared to Paul. . . . The more one studies the event, the more one agrees

threatenings and slaughter
against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,
and desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them
bound unto Jerusalem." —Acts 9:1-2.

"And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus; and suddenly there shined round about
him a light from heaven: And
he fell to the earth, and heard
a voice saying unto him, Saul,
Saul, why persecutest thou Me?"

"And he said, Who art Thou,
Lord? And the Lord said, I am
Jesus whom thou persecutest:
it is hard for thee to kick
against the pricks.

"And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, what wilt Thou
have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be

with the 18th century English
statesman, George Lyttelton,
"that the conversion and apostle-
ship of St. Paul alone, duly considered, was of itself a demonstration sufficient to prove Christianity to be a divine revelation." —F. Bruce.

In "A Truth For the Class to Carry Away," the Rev. Dr. Wilbur M. Smith wrote: "All souls
are precious in the sight of God.
Christ died for all men. It has often been true that men who
once were strongly and vigorously anti-Christian in their convictions and influence, when
converted, became equally
strong and vigorous in their proclamation and defense of the faith. This is one reason why
the Lord wanted this man Saul
for Himself. Ought we not more often and more earnestly to pray for the conversion of some of the more influential enemies
of the Christian faith today?"

Research in Japan

HONOLULU (AP) — A former
Antioch, Ohio, College faculty
member, who was convicted of
sailing his yacht into a U.S. testing zone in a protest against nuclear warfare, says he will set up a research project in Japan
on the effects of atomic radiation
on a child's growth.

Earle L. Reynolds, who has appealed his conviction of violating
U.S. Atomic Energy Commission
regulations, announced Monday
that he will leave for Japan in January. He said he will return
here in April and sail his yacht
Phoenix of Hiroshima to Japan
after the winter storms are over.
The anthropologist sailed the Phoenix
into the U.S. test zone at Eniwetok in 1958.

School Levy Is Topic of Saltcreek Meet

School can not open at any of the Logan Elm District Schools next fall if the levies being voted on by district voters fall on December 8, members of Saltcreek PTO were told during their monthly meeting Tuesday evening.

Jack Smith, citizens committee chairman, Dr. Wells Wilson, board of education president, and Carl Burger, Logan Elm Superintendent explained the levies and answered questions.

PTO members were told that the two mill renewal and the new two mills being requested represent more than one third of the district's $320,000 budget for 1960-61.

It was also explained that the new Logan Elm High School could not open without the $46,000 which the 2 1/2 mill equipment levy will produce during the one year it is to run. In response to questions the speakers explained that state funds would not be available to the district in order to keep the schools open if local citizens refused to tax themselves for schools.

It was pointed out, that the district suffered an $8,000 loss of state funds due to changes made by the legislature which adds to the present financial crisis.

During the PTO business session conducted by Carl Anderson, Robert Collins, the finance chairman, presented the recommendations for his committee which were adopted by the group. The projects will include saving sales tax stamps, a light bulb sale and an auction in March.

The program was presented by the first four grades featuring songs and playlets with a Thanksgiving theme. The program was under the direction of the teachers, Mrs. Florence Bochart, Mrs. Urcie Cross, Miss Barbara Valentine and Miss Margaret Chilcote.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Justice, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Moss, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dresbach and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Speaman.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

No Eye for an I.O.U. Affair

DEAR ABBY: I have already started my Christmas shopping and the same old problem has come up again. We have only one child but that's no fault of ours. We'd have welcomed a dozen if the good Lord had sent them to us.

I married into one of those families that makes a fuss over Christmas. They have a total of 33 children. (I have only one sister and she has one child so she's not mixed up in this.)

Our problem is this: We spend about $10 on each child's Christmas gift. This adds to $330. In return, each FAMILY gives our child a gift which costs about $10. This means we are getting $70 worth of presents for our $330.

This is not fair. Can you, or any of your readers, figure out some way for us to come out even?

SHORT END
DEAR ABBY: In order to "come out even" you'll have to cut down the cost of your gift to $2.12 per child. Christmas-giving shouldn't be an eye for an I.O.U. AFFAIR.

DEAR ABBY: This has been bothering me for a long time so I decided to write to you and get your opinion of it.

While I was at a friend's house watching the World Series on television, when the band played "The Star-Spangled Banner," I stood up. Everyone told me to sit down. I felt very foolish because I am a War Bride and was advised that Americans were supposed to stand up when "The Star-Spangled Banner" was played. Please tell me if I was wrong?

WAR BRIDE
DEAR BRIDE: It is not necessary to stand up in the privacy of a home when the national anthem is being played. But having stood, your friends were rude to have told you to sit down.

DEAR ABBY: The girl who signed herself "HATES PIANO" could have been me when I was a kid. Only I am a man. My parents actually struggled to give me piano lessons when I was eight years old. I despised it and threw tantrums and acted like I was doing them a favor to practice an hour a day. I finally got them to let me quit when I was twelve. I am 42 years old now and I will never forgive my parents for not giving me a good swift kick in the pants and making me go on.

"MISSED THE BOAT"
DEAR ABBY: My husband is a great one for hunting. Last year he got a deer and I have had my freezer full of deer meat all winter. My husband is very fond of deer meat but I haven't fixed him any because I am not sure I know how to prepare it. It is all cut up into roast and steaks. I feel so foolish asking my friends. Can you tell me?

HUNTER'S WIFE
DEAR WIFE: Season and cook deer roast exactly the same way you'd prepare "utility" cuts of beef. Roast venison is best when cooked slowly. Deer steaks are prepared the same as beef steaks.

What's your problem? For a personal reply write to ABBY, care of this paper. Enclosed a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Driver Permit Fix Scandal Hits New York

NEW YORK (AP)—Three state agencies are investigating a drivers' license fix racket. The attorney general's office says almost half the motor vehicle inspectors in the New York Metropolitan area are under inquiry.

The investigation is being conducted by the attorney general's office, the Bureau of Motor Vehicles and the State Police.

An official in the office of Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz said the investigation into a fix ring is in its infancy and may spread to other sections of the state. The official asked that he not be publicly identified.

The ring is reported to involve some auto driving school operators as well as motor vehicle inspectors.

There were indications that the schools involved paid some inspectors and their supervisors to allow the school's clients to pass drivers' tests and to receive licenses.

The schools, it was reported unofficially, usually paid the inspectors $10 an applicant and then paid the supervisors $5 a test. The ring broke when some of the inspectors demanded more money, one source said.

Experts Eye Growing Hazard Of Airports in Home Areas

CHICAGO (AP)—The peril of low-flying aircraft to residents of dwellings near busy airports was being studied today by investigators of a flaming crash of a cargo plane near Midway Airport.

There were 11 fatalities in Tuesday's tragedy. Three were aboard the Trans World Airlines Super-H Constellation that crashed three blocks short of a runway. The other eight victims were asleep in dwellings smashed and set afire by the crippled plane.

Thirteen other persons were injured.

An apartment building and three homes were demolished as though a bomb had struck the peaceful neighborhood near the airport handling more than 1,200 takeoffs and landings every day.

Much of Chicago's air traffic, including movements of all jet craft, has been diverted in the last few years to O'Hare International Airport on the city's Northwest Side but the problem of low-flying aircraft over residences still remains.

Chicago's official concern was expressed by Alderman John Egan, head of the City Council Aviation Committee.

"No matter what the causes of this accident, it points up the ever-present hazard of having big airplanes passing low over heavily built up city communities," Egan said.

"We can't imagine what a proper solution to this difficulty might be."

Midway is a mile-square terminal on the Southwest Side which aviation authorities said enjoys a good safety record in terms of the volume of traffic.

Laid out in the pioneer days of flying when the speed, size and numbers of today's aircraft were in the realm of science fiction, Midway was in a sparsely populated area.

But the city has grown around it. Many of those living nearby derive their livelihood from the port. Two of Tuesday's victims were a newly married couple employed by a helicopter firm.

Automakers Eye Yule Trade

They Want New Cars For Santa's Pack

DETROIT (AP)—Santa Claus will have some 1960 model cars in his pack this Christmas if automakers are able to follow through on production plans announced this week.

General Motors, which hasn't built a car since Nov. 11 and which has assembled less than 12,000 since Nov. 1 will begin returning to production Dec. 7. Full five-day assembly by all divisions is scheduled for Dec. 14.

Chrysler, which will have only three assembly plants running after Thursday, also hopes to be back in full production by mid-December.

Ford has returned to almost normal schedules after slowing down for several weeks. American Motors and Studebaker-Packard continue normally.

Since GM normally builds almost half of the nation's cars, dealers stocks have shrunk sharply during its idleness. Most GM dealers say they will be out of new cars by early December.

Ford reports a continuing shortage of its new compact Falcons. It has announced plans to convert the Metuchen, N.J., Mercury plant to Falcon production as fast as possible starting in mid-December.

Chrysler has halted all production of Imperials, Vallants and Dodge trucks. Vallants are in particularly short supply.

Rambler dealers also report shortages of certain models. American Motors says this is due to increasing business and production problems rather than a steel shortage.

Ohio Air Service Hearing Booked

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—If some Ohio cities are not satisfied with airline service recommended in a preliminary decision of the Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB), the state may help them take counter-arguments to the federal government, Commerce Director John W. Bush said today.

He has called a meeting here Monday (1 p.m.) of the Ohio cities which were parties to the Great Lakes local service investigation case two years ago. Included are Akron, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton, Findlay, Lima, Mansfield, Marion, New Philadelphia, Portsmouth, Sandusky, Toledo, Youngstown and Zanesville.

The Cathedral of the Assumption in Baltimore is the oldest Roman Catholic cathedral in the United States.

Strip Teaser Lectures; Boys Can't Remember Her Topic

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP)—No one could recall much of what she said, but the brothers of Sigma Chi Fraternity agreed today they never heard a more effective speaker than Libby Jones.

Miss Jones, a strip teaser who stands six thought-provoking feet tall in her spike heels, addressed the fraternity at Bowling Green State university Wednesday in her first speech on a college campus.

The 32 young men present forgot her topic, but their house-mother remembered. It was "The Sociological and Psychological Aspects of Strip Teasing."

Miss Jones discussed the drawbacks of the American Educational system and declared that strip teasing is becoming more acceptable to the public every day.

Members of the fraternity said they cleared Miss Jones' appearance with William Taylor, BGSU dean of men, after several of them had seen Miss Jones perform at a burlesque house in Toledo.

A BGSU spokesman, however, said Dean Taylor had told the fraternity he thought scheduling a speech by a stripper would be in bad taste, but that he did not forbid it. The spokesman said the dean neither cleared nor forbade the speech.

Attesting to her charm was the experience of a Toledo newspaper reporter, William P. Day.

Earlier Wednesday, Day interviewed Miss Jones for a half hour

Houston of OSU Repeats On Captains' All-American

By WALTER L. JOHNS
Central Press Sports Editor

For the 30th straight year, and once again with the aid of the nation's football captains, Central Press Association presents its 1959 All-American football team, an honor squad which includes two repeaters from last year — Billy Cannon, Louisiana, State U. halfback, and Jim Houston, outstanding Ohio State end.

The 1959 Central Press All-American, which includes five players from the Midwest, three from the South, two from the East and one from the Southwest, packs power, size and speed highlighted by the presence of Cannon, and two Big Ten players, including Houston, who were picked as the "most valuable" players on their squads by votes of teammates.

Additionally, the three-team Central Press squad includes one other player who made the first team CP honor eleven last year and two other Big Ten players who also were voted as the "most valuable" on their squads.

The 1959 Central Press Captains All-American was picked after careful scanning of ballots sent in by the captains of the nation's major college teams. The captains, as in the past were asked to vote for the best players, at their positions, they "have seen in action this season as a teammate or as an opponent."

Players on the second and third teams ran fairly close to first-team choices, as always, and many other outstanding collegiate gridgers also rate honors.

Closest battles for positions, perhaps, were at end, center and

Clarksburg Tops Deers; Myers Gets 37

Although David Myers of Williamsport crashed the nets for 37 points, the Deers dropped a 68-56 test at Clarksburg Wednesday night.

Myers, firing mostly from around the key, shot 29 times and was true on 12 to lead all scorers for the evening. He also connected for 13 of 20 foul shots.

Clarksburg pulled to a 20-13 lead in the first quarter, then fought it close to the wire to hang on in face of Meyer's dangerous shooting.

The winners placed three men in double figures. Bill McDonald led most of the damage with 21 points. Rugged rebounder Jerry Ater swept the boards and managed to hit for 15 tallies.

CLARKSBURG's third scoring threat was Jerry McDonald who ended with 15 markers.

Williamsport started with a men-to-man defense, switched to a 2-3 for a time, then ended with a full court press in an effort to grab the lead.

Coach Glen Chester's Deers came close to knotting the count several times, only to see the Clarksburg clan stiffen at crucial points.

Clarksburg also took the reserve encounter by stopping the young Deers on a 37-18 decision.

halfback. Just a word on part of the voting, if we may.

Despite the fact his team had one of their poorest seasons, Houston, the Buckeye end, received votes from virtually all the captains of teams which opposed the Buckeyes this year. Ron Burton, the Northwestern halfback who was plagued by injuries and failed to excel in his last two games, nevertheless received votes from virtually all opponents. More than 250 college players received votes in the captains' poll with Burton, Cannon, Houston, Lucas and Lanphear drawing the most.

Wisconsin's Big Ten champs landed three players on the three Central Press honor teams, to lead all schools. Syracuse, the national champion, had two representatives.

Raiders Roll To 62-56 Win Over Monroe

Atlanta picked up its second win in four starts by handing visiting Monroe a 62-56 loss Wednesday night.

Coach Jim Shaw's Red Raiders capitalized on a big second quarter to tally 20 points and take a 33-30 lead at the half. Monroe led, 14-13, at the first period ended.

Ronnie Morris again was the scoring ace for Atlanta as he racked the nets for 22 points, most of them coming on tips and from the corner and outside.

Tom Oyer gave an able assist with 16 markers, many of them scored from underneath.

STEVE Fullen led the attack for Monroe as he hit from the corner and drove for 21 points. Sidekick Larry Bigam opened up from the pivot and outside to bring home 16 tallies.

Roger Mowery was Monroe's third scoring ace as he connected for 15 points.

Monroe gained some consolation by taking the reserve contest, 24-21.

Centralia's cage Bulldogs evened their record at 2-2 with a 51-38 decision over visiting Salt Creek Wednesday night.

Sonny Harrison of Centralia and Denny Valentine of Salt Creek split scoring honors for the evening. Harrison, hitting from all over the floor, meshed the nets for 21 points. Valentine sparked the Warriors with 15 markers.

Harrison hit eight of 21 attempts from the field and connected on five of six foul shots. Gary McNeal aided the Bulldog cause with 14 points.

Tom Haynes was a valuable asset for the winners as he grabbed 21 rebounds to honors in that department.

SALT CREEK roared to a 16-11 first period lead but could not maintain the pace as Centralia came back to take a 29-22 intermission margin.

The Bulldogs made it a double win by taking the reserve contest, 29-17. It was the fourth win in a row for the victors.

Laurelville Downs Trojans In 64-62 Tilt; Walters Hot

Laurelville and Darby hooked up in a real battle Wednesday night which saw the host Laurelville outfit come through with a narrow 64-62 decision.

It was the fifth win in six starts for the Hocking County aggregation which spoiled Darby's opening test.

Darby, behind the sharpshooting of Tommy Walters, rolled to an 18-15 first quarter lead. Laurelville found the range in the second can to dump in 24 points and take a 39-30 lead at halftime.

Darby outscored its host in the second half, but not by enough points to make up the second quarter deficit. The contest provided plenty of thrills for a jam-packed house.

WALTERS gave Laurelville fits with his amazing accuracy from the field as he fired 18 times and made good on 15 for a blazing 83 per cent average and 31 points. At one points, the hosts used three men in an effort to stop the Darby sharpshooters.

Tommy Liff also carried a burden as he fired for 14 points for Coach Ned Reichelderfer's Trojans.

Max Young reaped scoring honors for Laurelville as he made good on eight field goals and five charity tosses for 21 points. Larry Keck added 17 tallies and Jim Unger found the mark for 10.

Darby shot a commendable 43 per cent for the evening, but this did not offset the even scoring balance of the Wildcats.

Walters and Liff both collected most of their points from outside. Young was hot from the corners and Keck specialized on drives. Unger starred around the pivot.

Darby will attempt to get on the win trail Saturday when the Trojans travel to Chillicothe Central Catholic for another top battle.

Darby — Sheets 1-1-3; Myers 1-0-2; J. Vance 4-0-8; Tufano 0-0-0; Drummond 1-0-2; Walters 15-1-31; Liff 7-2-16. Totals 29-16-64.

Laurelville — Unger 1-1-3; Ebert 1-3-5; Young 8-5-21; J. Unger 2-6-10; Keck 8-1-17; Wiggins 4-0-8; Smith 0-0-0; Totals 25-16-64.

Area School News

MONROE
In the First Grade we have had many days of absence the past two weeks due to illness.

Two new students entered the first grade recently. They were Diana and Sarah Perkins. They have been attending Darby School. Charles Kline withdrew to enter school at Columbus. He moved there with his family this week.

During Art Class they have made Pilgrims and turkeys for their room.

The Fourth Grade has had a change of faces in their room, but still have the same total enrollment. Randy Asbury and Frank Perkins joined their class. Randy stayed with them one week and moved back to Mt. Sterling. Robert Reed moved to Sinking Springs.

THEY HAVE seven girls and two boys who have been neither absent nor tardy thus far this year. They are Pauline Austin, Katherine Barton, Carol Conley, Carma Liston, Sue Sheets, Linda Sines, Darrell Arnett and Dick Long.

They also have seven girls and boys who made a perfect score on their six weeks spelling test. They are Katherine Barton, Sonya Lindsey, Pamela Miller, Sue Williams, Steven Armentrout, Dick Long and Steven Smith.

They are all looking forward to a busy December since plans are being made for the Christmas program and they are making their mothers a nice gift.

Each year, a girl's workshop has been held on the first day of hunting season. This year the girl's physical education workshop was held November 16, in the Fairground's Coliseum.

For the first time in years, we have watched a sharp increase in enrollment in our schools. Previously the workshop has been held at Walnut Twp. School, however, with this sharp increase in enrollment a larger area was deemed a necessity.

With the support of the Pickaway County school administrators and executives we were able to secure the coliseum. We had 465 girls participating. Miss Virginia Crafts, Ohio State University, escorted 17 members of her Junior Class in teaching methods to help conduct the workshop.

THE VOLLEYBALL tournament was the main activity. Each school made up the number of teams in groups of nine that their enrollment called for.

The teams were further divided into groups of A or B. In the county we had 10 teams participating in the "A" and 41 teams participating in the "B". In addition to the volleyball tournaments, we had social dancing, table tennis and trampoline work.

In the afternoon the workshop sessions on folk dancing and lead-up games took place in addition to the volleyball tournament. Folk dances which were taught were the Danish Schottische, the Crested Hen, and the Mayhem.

Those girls participating in these dances then took them back to their respective schools to teach the girls in their physical education class.

Most of the games were restricted.

Gracie Settles It

SAVANNAH, Ga. (AP)—Hurricane Gracie settled an argument for county officials about whether to take down an ancient oak.

Some folks differed with county commissioners about it, saying the tree did not stand in the way of a paving program and they wanted to save the beautiful oak.

Gracie decided the question, snapping the huge tree near its roots. The oak was chopped up for stove wood.

Monroe's girls were divided into three teams, one "A" and two "B". The girls did quite well considering a good case of "nervous shakes" enveloped each girl as she stepped forward on the floor.

OUR "B" TEAM won two good games. Williamsport won the "B" tournament and Atlanta won the "A" tournament. Each of these schools was presented with a "roving" trophy.

Officers and members of the Girls Physical Education Teachers, who helped organize and supervise the workshop were: president, Mrs. Patty Ogle, Monroe; secretary, Mrs. Jo Anne Smith, Scioto and Walnut;

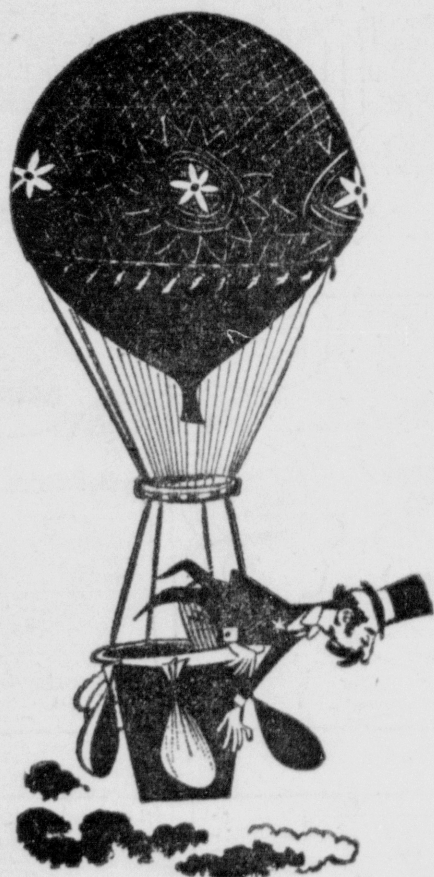

Treasurer, Miss Phyllis Tackett, Jackson and publicity, Mrs. Pauline Patrick, Atlanta; Mrs. Don Collins, Ashville, Mrs. Robert Newton, Darby; Mrs. Jean Mills, Pickaway, Mrs. Glenn Chester, Deercreek, and Wayne Evans, Saltcreek.

This group wishes to thank Mrs. Marcella Hildenbrand, Miss Delong, George McDowell and Miss Lydia Delong for helping them with a very successful workshop.

The girls of Monroe certainly enjoyed the day thoroughly and have been putting the information gained to practice in classes.

During the last six weeks Dickie Downs resigned from his office as news reporter in the freshman class. Ruth Seymour was elected to take his place.

Wednesday the class decided to have a skating party. The date was set for April 5, 1960, at the Roller Haven in Washington C. H. They also decided to have a Christmas party on December 23.

Firefighters Name Officers

During the past five weeks the firemen of the Ashville - Harrison Twp. Department have been receiving instruction in fire fighting. The instruction is to improve fire prevention and fire protection in the Ashville - Harrison Twp. area.

According to a report from the instructor Chief J. H. Hampson, the class is making excellent progress. The men are attending the classes on their own time since the department is a volunteer organization. The training is provided as part of the public service program of Trade and Industrial Vocational Education Service of the State Department of Education, in cooperation with Teays Valley Local Board of Education.

This training program operates in conformance with standards established cooperatively by the Division of State Fire Marshall, the Ohio Inspection Bureau, the Trade and Industrial Vocational Education Service and the organized firefighters' associations.

The firemen elected officers for the new year at their Monday night meeting. They are George Myers, president; Richard Bozman, vice president; Andrew Ward, secretary; and Thomas Rife, treasurer.

8 False Alarms Rout Small Town Firemen

LENEXA, Kan. (AP)—The volunteer firemen of Lenexa tumbled from their beds and rushed into the sub-freezing weather eight times Wednesday night on false alarms.

Thursday morning the fire-fighting citizens sped to the fire station seven times before a telephone lineman finally brought peace to Lenexa, a suburb of Kansas City.

Fire Chief Bert Gast explained that a short in a telephone line sounded the whistle atop the fire house every time the station phone was used.

MUSCLE MEN

● Fungus Infection

Q. How is it possible for professional weight-lifters to raise tremendous loads without injuring the back?

A. General muscular development and "know-how" are obviously needed to lift heavy weights. English doctors made a study of weight-lifting and determined that the theoretical maximum lift is something like 500 pounds. This is, in practice, about tops for professionals. Much of the lifted weight is suspended by the spinal column. The rubbery pads (intervertebral discs) which fit between each bone of the spine withstand pressures up to 1000 pounds. So the professional weight-lifter comes nowhere near lifting enough to crush the spine.

Q. I have been told that I have an incurable fungus infection of the fingernails. Isn't there a cure?

A. Infections of this sort are very difficult to clear up because the infecting organism works its way into the hard-to-reach layers of the skin. Medicines applied to the skin often fail to penetrate deep enough to kill the fungus. This situation may change very soon. A new anti-fungal antibiotic has been developed that can be taken by mouth. Excellent results have been obtained in a limited number of patients with skin and nail infections. This will be encouraging news to many people.
